

What Would Life In America Be Like Without A Constitution?

- A War Without a Formal Declaration.
- A “Patriot Act” That Destroys Our Rights.
- An Income Tax With NO Legal Authority.
- A Currency Based Upon Limitless Debt.
- A Privately Owned Central Bank.
- A Government That Refuses to Answer.

Help Us Defend Our Constitution

The Constitution is all that stands between the People and total government tyranny and despotism. It is a set of principles meant to restrain our servant government and guarantee the protection of the People's unalienable rights.

The Constitution does not defend itself. We, the American People, must defend it.

If and when the institutions of the Congress and the Courts fail to protect the People from tyrannical acts, the People must rely on the 1st Amendment's guarantee of our unalienable right to Petition for Redress of Grievances and the government's obligation to respond.

Freedom Drive 2002 is a nationwide event to help the People recognize the wisdom and importance of our Right to Petition for Redress and how to use this right as both a shield — and a sword — against a government that steps outside the boundaries the People have drawn around its power.

Freedom Drive began on October 7, 2002 with the posting of four Petitions for Redress of Grievances on our website. Thousands of signatures have already been affixed to these Petitions.

On Thursday, November 7, the Petitions will be served on all 535 members of Congress and the President.

On Friday, November 8, the People will begin to caravan from the West Coast to Washington DC. The caravan will grow in numbers as it approaches Washington.

On the morning of Thursday, November 14th, People from all over the country will drive into DC and then peaceably assemble at noon at the National Mall to await the government's responses.

If the government fails to respond, the People will be justified in taking stronger, non-violent measures to bring the government back under the control of the People and the Constitution.

Last summer, Bob Schulz went on a 3-week hunger strike, risking death, to get the IRS and DOJ to answer a Petition for Redress directly challenging the legal authority for the federal income tax and the legal jurisdiction of the IRS.

After formally agreeing to publicly provide official answers, both IRS and DOJ reneged on their formal agreement.

To this day, the legal charges remain unanswered by the US Government.
