

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

July 18, 2001

Dear Mr. Schulz:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letters of June 11 and July 1 regarding the income tax system. I understand your concerns and the arguments you make.

Your letter of June 11 outlines extensively the concerns of the We the People Foundation for Constitutional Education, Inc. with regard to the efficacy of the current income tax system. While I believe the best way to address your concerns is through the court system, I have taken the liberty of sharing your letters with the Internal Revenue Service for their review. A more substantive response will be forthcoming from this office once the IRS has had the opportunity to assess your grievances.

I would be remiss if I did not suggest that you end your fast. Whether or not federal tax experts attend a meeting your organization has scheduled for September 18 will be determined based upon their substantive assessment of your arguments. While your personal commitment to the cause of tax reform is dramatic, I hope that you will not endanger yourself physically in this cause.

Please be assured that your letters will receive careful attention at the IRS.

Sincerely,

Lawrence B. Lindsey
Assistant to the President for Economic Policy
