FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[FCC 54-1166]

STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION, DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY AND OTHER INFORMATION

In the matter of revision of Part O of the Commission's rules and regulations.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 15th day of September, 1954;

The Commission having under consideration a proposed revision of Part O of its rules; and

It appearing, that, since the reorganization of the Commission, several amendments to the Communications Act of 1934 have been enacted by Congress, and many orders concerning reorganization and delegation of authority to various Bureaus and Staff Offices have been adopted by the Commission; and

It further appearing, that a revision of Part O of the rules, taking into account all these orders, would be in aid of orderly administration procedure and would more fully carry out the provisions of section 3 (a) (1) of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing, that certain additional delegations to the staff of minor importance have been adopted which should be incorporated into the revision of Part O of the rules; and

It further appearing, that the revision herein ordered is procedural and editorial in nature and, therefore, compliance with the public rule making procedures required by sections 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act is not required;

It is ordered, That effective October 15, 1954, and in accordance with sections 4 (i), 5 (d) (1) and 303 (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Part O of the Commission's rules is hereby revised to read as set forth below.¹

Released: September 22, 1954.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] MARY JANE MORRIS,
Secretary.

¹Part O of the Commission's rules as revised will be available from the Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C., in the near future in pamphlet form.
