DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Office of the Secretary

[Treasury Dept. Order 220]

OFFICES OF LAW ENFORCEMENT, TARIFF AND TRADE AFFAIRS, AND OPERATIONS

Establishment

By virtue of authority vested in the Secretary of the Treasury, including the authority in Reorganization Plan No. 26 of 1950, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me as Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations), including that delegated to me by Treasury Department Order No. 190 (Revision 7), dated September 4, 1969, there are hereby established in the Office of the Secretary the following three offices:

Office of Law Enforcement.
Office of Tariff and Trade Affairs.
Office of Operations.

These three offices shall be under the policy guidance of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations); the Office of Law Enforcement and the Office of Tariff and Trade Affairs shall be under his immediate direction and supervision; and the Office of Operations shall be under the immediate supervision of the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations). The functions, responsibilities, and relationships of the Deputy Assistant Secretary and of these offices shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY

1. Acts as Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) during any absences of the Assistant Secretary.
2. Supervises the Bureau of the Mint, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Consolidated Federal Law Enforcement Training Center and the Office of Operations and keeps the Assistant Secretary informed about the activities of these organizations.
3. Keeps fully informed about the work of the Offices of Law Enforcement and Tariff and Trade Affairs and provides assistance, as appropriate, to facilitate their smooth and effective functioning.
4. Supervises the internal operations of the Office of the Assistant Secretary to assure and facilitate its smooth operation and in this connection develops or coordinates the development and maintenance of a work program for the Office with input from each individual office director; assures the development of appropriate work programs by the bureaus; establishes necessary controls, including periodic activity reports for evaluation of office and bureau performance; consolidates and evaluates information received; advises and makes recommendations to the Assistant Secretary, as appropriate, and keeps offices and bureaus informed about progress.

5. Represents the Assistant Secretary in the review and promotion of the budget submission of the bureaus supervised.

6. Reviews and decides penalty and seizure cases submitted for mitigation determinations.

OFFICE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

1. Provides the focal and contact point at the Office of the Secretary level for all law enforcement initiatives and interactions with the individual bureaus of the Treasury; other departments and agencies of the Federal Government; and with other levels of government, the governments of other nations and INTERPOL.

2. Develops Treasury law enforcement policy; reviews law enforcement policy proposals by the bureaus; assesses bureau regulatory proposals for their effect on existing Treasury law enforcement policies; and reviews and makes recommendations to the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) on proposed legislation, regulatory changes, or other policy matters concerning law enforcement.

3. Develops policy, coordinates operations, monitors activities and evaluates performance and results for Treasury participation in national law enforcement programs and efforts, including the organized crime drive, the suppression of narcotic and dangerous drug smuggling, and any other interdepartmental law enforcement programs that may arise from time to time.

4. Coordinates Treasury's law enforcement plans, programs and intelligence operations.

5. Under the leadership of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) monitors and reviews Treasury-wide law enforcement activities and operations, coordinates inspection policies of the several enforcement agencies; selectively reviews enforcement and performance reports and instigates followup actions as appropriate; and makes recommendations to the Assistant Secretary leading to more effective Treasury law enforcement operations.

6. Provides for the Assistant Secretary, liaison and a link of communication with IRS, Customs and Secret Service on all enforcement policies, programs and activities; reviews their law enforcement executive reports; meets with their supervisory enforcement personnel; and reviews and advises on long range enforcement projects and plans.

7. Assists in bringing about the most effective cooperation between the several Treasury bureaus and the State, local and other national law enforcement agencies by keeping abreast of law enforcement developments and problems of the bureaus and legislative and regulatory developments in the States and local units of government which might affect Treasury's law enforcement intelligence, and by arranging the optimum deployment and cross utilization of resources.

8. Assures the coordination of Treasury-wide law enforcement activities throughout the Treasury field service through supervision of a system of Treasury Law Enforcement Coordinators located in major cities throughout the country (at the present 22 cities), and through chairmanship of the Treasury Law Enforcement Coordination Council.

9. Provides advice and assistance to the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) on protective operations carried out by the Secret Service. Evaluates the effectiveness of protective operations and policies and, in conformance with broad guidance by the Assistant Secretary, provides policy direction to the Secret Service on protective operations and related issues.

10. Represents the Assistant Secretary on interdepartmental law enforcement committees and task forces; maintains liaison with other national, local, and foreign law enforcement agencies; provides public information on Treasury law enforcement matters and maintains and arranges for the use of the Treasury Law Enforcement Exhibit; supervises and coordinates INTERPOL activities, through direction of the National Central Bureau; and provides a central point of contact in Treasury on law enforcement matters.

11. Evaluates Treasury's law enforcement training needs and experience and provides input on training requirements in terms of new or changed curriculum to the Director, Consolidated Federal Law Enforcement Training Center. Maintains close liaison with him and all Treasury enforcement agencies on training needs and effectiveness.

12. With guidance by the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations), provides leadership and stimulation to Treasury's law enforcement agencies in seeking out, planning and initiating the most effective approaches to Treasury law enforcement, and new concepts and ideas for crime suppression, avoidance, and detection.

13. Coordinates Treasury's policies and programs for research and development and conducts scientific testing programs for law enforcement; provides leadership to the Treasury Laboratory Coordination and Review Board; sponsors research into law enforcement techniques and approaches related to Treasury's law enforcement mission; and exploits the latest developments in enforcement-related technology.

OFFICE OF TARIFF AND TRADE AFFAIRS

1. Serves as the principal support for the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) in all tariff and trade matters, including the administration of antidumping and countervailing duty laws and regulations.

2. Assists the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) in formulating and carrying out the plans and policies for overall top level administration of Treasury's responsibilities in tariff and classification matters.

3. Reviews all antidumping and countervailing duty cases investigated by the Bureau of Customs and recommends their disposition to the Assistant Secretary.

4. Conducts meetings of interested parties to antidumping proceedings to provide a final opportunity for complete exchange of views before a Treasury decision is made.

5. Provides the focal point on trade policy matters in the Office of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) for liaison with other components of the Department and of the Office of the Secretary, as well as with other departments and agencies of the Federal Government.

6. Reviews and makes recommendations to the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) on proposed legislation, regulatory changes or other policy proposals on tariff and trade matters.

7. Represents the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) on departmental, interdepartmental and international meetings or committees concerned with tariff and trade matters.

8. Prepares material for presentation to congressional committees on tariff and trade affairs and, in the absence of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) presents this material in direct testimony.

9. Prepares material for release in public media and responds to public inquiries on Treasury views on tariff and trade matters.

OFFICE OF OPERATIONS

1. Serves as the principal support for the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) and the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) in the administrative management and supervision of the bureaus assigned, i.e., the Bureau of Customs, the Secret Service, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, the Bureau of the Mint and the Consolidated Federal Law Enforcement Training Center.

2. Except in the area of law enforcement, develops policy and programs, monitors operation and activities, and evaluates performance and results of the bureaus under the supervision of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) and makes recommendations as appropriate.

3. Reviews financial plans of the bureaus and makes recommendations on budget estimates, submissions and justifications.

4. Identifies issues and matters requiring coordination among bureaus, the Office of the Assistant Secretary and other segments of the Office of the Secretary and the Department, and assures that such coordination takes place.

5. Coordinates with other departments and agencies significant operational matters (other than law enforcement) referred by or involving the bureaus supervised.

6. Coordinates the review and recommends to the Deputy Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) and the Assistant Secretary, as appropriate, the disposition of proposals for changes in organization, staffing and procedures by the bureaus supervised.

7. Reviews penalty and seizure cases prepared by the Bureau of Customs; arranges for and monitors conferences between petitioners and Treasury officials; and makes recommendations to the Deputy Assistant Secretary on disposition of cases including mitigation.

8. Reviews and makes recommendations on proposed legislation and regulatory changes affecting the bureaus supervised, excepting in the areas of law enforcement or tariff and trade affairs.

9. Operates for the Office of the Assistant Secretary (Enforcement and Operations) a secretariat for monitoring incoming correspondence and replies, and reviews correspondence on operational matters (other than law enforcement) for the Assistant Secretary's signature.

10. Assists the Office of Public Affairs in reviewing public affairs policy and projects of the bureaus supervised and in preparing material for release in public media; responds to Congressional and public inquiries concerning Treasury views on bureau operations.

Dated: April 23, 1971.

[SEAL] EUGENE T. ROSSIDES,
Assistant Secretary
(Enforcement and Operations).
