IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WE THE PEOPLE, et al	)	AFFIDAVIT
Plaintiffs	)
	)	CASE No. 1:04CV01211
v.	)	JUDGE: Emmet G. Sullivan
	)
UNITED STATES, et al	)
	)
Defendants	)

I, _____, being duly sworn, depose and say:

1. I am a party to the action captioned above; I am over eighteen years of age.
2. I have properly petitioned Defendants for a Redress of Grievances relating to:
   a) The war powers clauses of the Constitution and the Iraq Resolution.
   b) The "privacy" clauses of the Constitution and the USA Patriot Act.
   c) The taxing clauses of the Constitution and the direct, un-apportioned tax on labor.
   d) The money and "debt" clauses of the Constitution and the Federal Reserve System.
3. By communicating information, expressing facts and opinions, reciting grievances, protesting abuses and praying for answers to specific questions, I have given expression essential to the end that government defendants may be responsive and accountable to the Constitution and to the sovereignty of the People and that changes may be obtained by lawful and peaceful means.
4. The Defendants have failed to properly respond to my Petition(s) for Redress.
5. The very idea of a government, republican in form, implies a right on my part, as a citizen, to meet peaceably with other citizens for consultation with respect to public affairs and to effectively petition the government defendants for a redress of grievances.
6. The Right to Petition is among the most precious of the liberties guaranteed by the Bill of Rights; the value in the Right of Petition as an essential element of self-government is beyond question.
7. The unfettered Petition for Redress is the only non-violent approach in a constitutional Republic for the free individual and the free minority to hold their servant government accountable to the Constitution and Bill of Rights; the ballot is merely for the majority: my behavior in this matter is the epitome of good citizenship.
