SECOND AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR DECLARATORY RELIEF, EQUITABLE RELIEF, AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

(Jury Trial Requested)

Plaintiffs by and through undersigned counsel, with the exception of Robert L. Schulz who is pro se, and pursuant to Rules 20, 23, and 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, hereby move the Court for an entry of an Order:

- a. Granting declaratory relief to the Plaintiffs by constraining the defendants to meet their obligations under the law and relevant rules by entering into good faith exchanges with the Plaintiffs and to provide to the Plaintiffs documented and specific answers to the reasonable questions asked of them by the Plaintiffs and to address in their respective official capacities each of the issues raised by the Plaintiffs in their Petitions to representatives of the United States Government, namely: grievances relating to violations of the U.S. Constitution's war powers, taxing, money, and "privacy" and due process clauses; and
- b. Granting a preliminary and temporary injunction against the United States Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Justice and any other agency of the United States that arguably may act in this matter under color of law, from taking any further retaliatory actions against the named Plaintiffs in this proceeding and against all others similarly situated, whether such retaliation is for attempting to petition the United States Government, for assembling and associating with one another under the umbrella of the We The People Foundation For Constitutional Education or the We The People Congress, for withholding monies from Defendants, for serving as

Plaintiffs in this action or for the exercise of any other rights protected by the Constitution of the United States; and

- c. Retaining jurisdiction of this action to ensure compliance with the Court’s decisions; and
- d. Expediting these proceedings where this matter might be set for trial; and
- e. Granting any other, non-financial relief to the Plaintiffs that the Court may deem proper.

In furtherance of this Motion, the Plaintiffs allege and say:

I. STATEMENT OF THE CLAIM

1. This Complaint arises from the failure of the President of the United States and his Attorney General and his Secretary of the Treasury and his Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service, and the failure of the United States Congress, to properly respond to Plaintiffs’ Petitions for Redress of Grievances against their government, namely: grievances relating to violations of the U.S. Constitution’s war powers, taxing, money, and “privacy” clauses.

2. This complaint also arises from the Executive Branch of the United States government in its retaliation against individual Plaintiffs for: Petitioning the government for a Redress of Grievances, namely grievances relating to violations of the U.S. Constitution’s war powers, taxing, money and “privacy” clauses, and for Peaceably Assembling and Associating with other individuals under the umbrella of the We The People Foundation For Constitutional Education and the We The People Congress.

THE PARTIES AND OTHER RESPONSIBLE PERSONS AND INSTITUTIONS

3. Plaintiff “We The People Foundation for Constitutional Education Inc.” is a not for profit research and educational foundation in good standing and organized under the Laws of the state of New York, with principle offices located at 2458 Ridge Rd., Queensbury, NY 12804. The Foundation has been spearheading, since 1999, a nationwide effort to get the government to answer specific questions, first regarding the government’s violation of the taxing clauses of the Constitution, and then, beginning in 2002, regarding the government’s violation of the war powers, money and “privacy” clauses of the Constitution.

4. Plaintiff “We The People Congress” is a membership organization in good standing and organized as a not for profit corporation under the Laws of the state of New York, with principle offices located at 2458 Ridge Rd., Queensbury, NY 12804. The We The People Congress currently has thousands of members nationwide, with county and state coordinators in nearly all States of the Union. The mission of the WTP Congress is to scrutinize governmental behavior at every level, compare that behavior with the requirements of the State and federal Constitutions, and then to intelligently, rationally, professionally, pro-actively and non-violently confront unconstitutional and illegal behavior by elected and/or appointed public officials.

5. Aside from the two explicitly identified corporate Plaintiffs (We The People Foundation and We The People Congress), each remaining Plaintiff is a natural living human being, is over the age of eighteen, and is a citizen of the state identified with his/her name and address in the caption above.

6. Each individual Plaintiff, per the First Amendment, has petitioned the defendants for Redress of Grievances relating to the taxing clauses of the Constitution and the direct, un-apportioned tax on labor.

7. Individual Plaintiffs have also petitioned the defendants for Redress of Grievances relating to the war powers clauses of the Constitution and the Iraq Resolution, the money clauses of the Constitution and the Federal Reserve System and the “privacy” clauses of the Constitution and the USA Patriot Act.

8. Each individual Plaintiff, by communicating information, expressing facts and opinions, reciting grievances, protesting abuses and praying for answers to specific questions, has given expression essential to the end that government Defendants are, and must be held responsive and accountable to the Constitution and to the sovereignty of the People and that Redress and changes to which the People are entitled may be obtained by lawful and peaceful means.

9. The Defendants have not responded to Plaintiffs’ repeated and numerous Petitions for Redress of Grievances.

10. Some, not all, plaintiffs, knowing that a Right that is not enforceable is not a Right and wishing to peaceably enforce his/her individual, unalienable Rights, have given further expression to their Rights under the First Amendment to Speech, Assembly and Petition, by not withholding and turning over to government defendants money earned by him/her as a result of his/her labor.

11. Individual Plaintiffs believe that such further expression by them is not an abuse, but an inextricable extension of these First Amendment Rights and any intervention by Defendants against such expression of these First Amendment Rights constitutes a direct and substantive curtailment of their Rights and is forbidden.

12. Individual Plaintiffs are suffering retaliation at the hands of Defendants for Petitioning Defendants for Redress of Grievances and for Peaceably Assembling and Associating with other individuals under the umbrella and auspices of the Plaintiff We The People organizations.

13. Each individual Plaintiff is a citizen resident of one of the States of the Union with a mailing address as presented in the following paragraphs.

14. ROBERT L. SCHULZ, 2458 Ridge Road, Queensbury, NY 12804, (518) 656-3578.

Robert L. Schulz is the Chairman of We The People Foundation for Constitutional Education, Inc., and We The People Congress, Inc. ROBERT L. SCHULZ is representing himself, in this matter.

15. JOSEPH BANISTER, 2282 Sunny Vista Dr., San Jose, CA 95128. JOSEPH BANISTER is a CPA and a former Special Agent of the Criminal Investigation Division of the Internal Revenue Service.

16. JOHN TURNER, PO Box 612, Paradise, CA 95967. JOHN TURNER is a former Revenue Officer of the Internal Revenue Service.

17. LOUIS M. JOY, P.O. Box 1345, Soldotna, AK 99669.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

A. THE FAILURE OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT TO ADDRESS THE PLAINTIFFS' PETITION FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES

1639. On numerous occasions Plaintiffs have respectfully Petitioned the Defendants, sought to publicly meet with the Defendants and to secure from the Defendants answers to reasonable questions regarding certain acts of Defendants believed by Plaintiffs to be repugnant to and outside the authority lawfully granted by the U.S. Constitution and certain Acts of Congress.

1640. Plaintiffs' Petitions for Redress of Grievances have included respectfully drawn requests for answers to questions regarding Defendants' overt acts, as well as their statutes, policies and programs related to the tax, war powers, money, "privacy" and due process clauses of the Constitution and certain statutes-- questions designed to assist Plaintiffs in their quest to determine their bona fide Rights and bona fide legal obligations under those laws, policies and programs as enforced by the Defendants.

1641. The Defendants have steadfastly refused to properly respond to Plaintiffs' proper Petitions for Redress of grievances and oppressions.

1642. A detailed account of multiple attempts, over several years by Plaintiffs to Petition their government for Redress of Grievances and the government's failure to respond is provided in the Affidavit to this court by Plaintiff Robert Schulz, sworn to on September 15, 2004.

1643. Additional examples of Plaintiffs' attempts to Petition their government for Redress of Grievances and the government's failure to respond are provided in the paragraphs below.

1644. Many additional examples of attempts by Plaintiffs to Petition their government for Redress of Grievances and government's failure to properly respond will be provided at trial and during discovery.

1645. What these examples show is that Plaintiffs have respectfully, intelligently and rationally contacted their Congresspersons and appropriate officials within the Executive branch, including the President, literally begging for someone in government to provide official answers to pertinent questions relating to alleged violations of the war powers, taxing, money and “privacy” clauses of the Constitution, including the legitimacy of the direct, un-apportioned tax on labor, as enforced under the alleged authority of the Internal Revenue Code, and as applied, de facto, to the working men and women of America.

1646. Despite these repeated pleadings by the Plaintiffs for Defendants to address the pertinent issues and questions posed by a large number of Americans, there has been total silence and a lack of acknowledgement from the Legislative and Executive branches of our government.

1647. Instead of Redress, there has been retaliation, accompanied by institutionalized contempt as well as a condescending and antagonistic attitude by our elected and appointed officials toward those Plaintiffs who have openly exercised their First Amendment Right to Petition for Redress of Grievances.

1648. In October, 2003, Department of Treasury Assistant Secretary for Tax Policy, Ms. Pam Olson, was respectfully asked by over five hundred plaintiffs these following six questions:

- 1) Should I use the rules found in 26 USC § 861(b), and the related regulations beginning at 26 CFR § 1.861-8, to determine my taxable domestic income?
- 2) If some individuals—including myself—should not use those sections for determining their taxable domestic income, please show me where the regulations say who should or should not use those sections for that.

Reason for first two questions: The regulations under 26 USC § 861(b) (26 CFR § 1.861-8 and following) begin by stating that Sections 861(b) and 863(a) state in general terms “how to determine taxable income of a taxpayer from sources within the United States” after gross income from the U.S. has been determined. (The regulations then say that Sections 862(b) and 863(a) describe how to determine taxable income from outside of the U.S.) Section 1.861-1(a)(1) of the regulations confirms that “taxable income from sources within the United States” is to be determined in accordance with the rules of 26 USC § 861(b) and 26 CFR § 1.861-8. (See also 26 CFR §§ 1.862-1(b), 1.863-1(c).)

3) If a U.S. citizen lives and works exclusively within the 50 states, and receives all of his income from within the 50 states, do 26 USC § 861(b) and 26 CFR § 1.861-8 show such income to be taxable?

Reason for question: Section 217 of the Revenue Act of 1921, statutory predecessor of 26 USC § 861 and following, stated that income from within the U.S. was taxable for foreigners and for U.S. citizens and corporations deriving most of their income from federal possessions (but did not say the same about the domestic income of most Americans). The regulations under the equivalent section of the 1939 Code (e.g. §§ 29.119-1, 29.119-2, 29.119-9, 29.119-10 (1945)) showed the same thing. The current regulations at 1.861-8 still show income to be taxable only when derived from certain “specific sources and activities,” which, concerning domestic income, still relate only to foreigners and certain Americans receiving income from federal possessions (26 CFR §§ 1.861-8(a)(1), 1.861-8(a)(4), 1.861-8(f)(1)).

4) Should one refer to 26 CFR § 1.861-8T(d)(2) to determine whether the “items” of income he receives (such as compensation, interest, rents, dividends, etc.) are excluded for federal income tax purposes?

Reason for question: The regulations (26 CFR § 1.861-8(a)(3)) state that a “class of gross income” consists of the “items” of income listed in 26 USC § 61 (e.g. compensation, interest, etc.). The regulations (26 CFR §§ 1.861-8(b)(1)) then direct the reader to “paragraph (d)(2)” of the section, which provides that such “classes of gross income” may include some income which is excluded for federal income tax purposes.

5) What is the purpose of the list of non-exempt types of income found in 26 CFR § 1.861-8T(d)(2)(iii), and why is the income of the average American not on that list?

Reason for question: After defining “exempt income” to mean income which is exempt, eliminated, or excluded for federal income tax purposes (26 CFR § 1.861-8T(d)(2)(ii)), the regulations give a list of types of income which are not exempt (i.e. which are subject to tax), which includes the domestic income of foreigners, certain foreign income of Americans, income of certain possessions corporations, and income of international and foreign sales corporations, but which does not include the domestic income of the average American (26 CFR § 1.861-8T(d)(2)(iii)).

6) What types of income (if any) are not exempted from taxation by any statute, but are nonetheless “excluded by law” (not subject to the federal income tax) because they are, under the Constitution, not taxable by the federal government?

Reason for question: Older income tax regulations defining “gross income” and “net income” said that neither income exempted by statute “or fundamental law” were subject to the tax (§ 39.21-1 (1956)), and said that in addition to those types of income exempted by statute, other types of income were exempt because they were, “under the Constitution, not taxable by the Federal Government” (§ 39.22(b)-1 (1956)).

1649. As of this date, the Plaintiffs are still awaiting Ms. Olsen, or any one individual from the Executive Branch, the Legislative Branch or the Internal Revenue Service to answer these simple questions.

1650. On September 16, 2003, at a press conference held at the U.S. Treasury Building, organized by defendant U.S. TREASURY DEPARTMENT, and defendant INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE, Mr. Terry Lemons, a senior spokesman for the IRS, stated in response to a question put to him by The New York Times as to why the Defendants had not responded to Plaintiffs' Petitions and questions regarding the legality of the income tax system as applied, "We are answering those petitions through enforcement actions."

1651. A statute must be set out in terms that the ordinary person exercising ordinary common sense can sufficiently understand and comply with, without sacrifice to the public interest. See Arnett v. Kennedy, 416 U.S. 134, 159, 40 L. Ed. 2d 15, 94 S. Ct. 1633 (1974) (quoting United States Civil Serv. Commission v. National Association of Letter Carriers, 413 U.S. 548, 579, 37 L. Ed. 2d 796, 93 S. Ct. 2880 (1973)).

1652. To pass constitutional scrutiny, a statute or code must give persons of ordinary intelligence fair notice that their contemplated conduct is forbidden by statute. See Grayned v. City of Rockford, 408 U.S. 104, 92 S. Ct. 2294, 33 L. Ed. 2d 222 (1972); and Papachristou v. City of Jacksonville, 405 U.S. 156, 92 S. Ct. 839, 31 L. Ed. 2d 110 (1972); and Bouie v. City of Columbia, 378 U.S. 347, 348, 351, 84 S. Ct. 1697, 1699, 1701, 12 L. Ed. 2d 894 (1964); and United States v. National Dairy Products Corp., 372 U.S. 29, 83 S. Ct. 594, 9 L. Ed. 2d 561 (1963).

1653. For years now, Plaintiffs, who are of ordinary intelligence, have petitioned the Executive Branch of the Federal Government, and the Legislative Branch of the Federal Government to tell them specifically where in the Internal Revenue Code it specifically requires that an American citizen-worker must pay taxes on wages directly derived from his/her labor or that companies must withhold. As of this date, the Executive Branch, and the Legislative Branch of the Federal government have failed to show, demonstrate, or explain where, in jurisdictional fact and law, the Internal Revenue Code requires such acts.

B. THE RETALIATION BY THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH AGAINST PLAINTIFFS FOR PETITIONING THE GOVERNMENT FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES

1654. Plaintiffs have petitioned defendants for a Redress of Grievances relating to:

- a) The taxing clauses of the Constitution and the direct, un-apportioned tax on labor.
- b) The war powers clauses of the Constitution and the Iraq Resolution.
- c) The money clauses of the Constitution and the Federal Reserve System.
- d) The “privacy” and due process clauses of the Constitution and the USA Patriot Act.

1655. By communicating information, Associating with like minds, expressing facts and opinions, reciting grievances, protesting abuses and praying for answers to specific questions, Plaintiffs have given expression essential to the end that government Defendants are, and must be held responsive and accountable to the Constitution and to the sovereignty of the People and that Redress and changes to which the People are entitled may be obtained by lawful and peaceful means.

1656. The Defendants have repeatedly and steadfastly failed to properly respond to Plaintiffs’ Petitions for Redress. Twice, Defendants have publicly uttered their unequivocal intention to respond to said Petitions through “enforcement actions.”

1657. Knowing that a Right that is not enforceable is not a Right and wishing to peaceably enforce their individual, unalienable Rights, some Plaintiffs have decided to give further expression to their Rights under the First Amendment to Speech, Assembly and Petition, by not withholding and turning over to government money earned in direct exchange for labor (i.e., not money “derived from” labor).

1658. Plaintiffs believe such further expression is not an abuse of any of their First Amendment Rights, but an inextricable extension of their First Amendment Rights and any intervention by Defendants against such exercise of these First Amendment Rights represents a direct and substantive curtailment of Plaintiffs’ Rights and is forbidden.

1659. However, Defendants are retaliating against Plaintiffs in the following ways: by sending Plaintiffs threatening letters; placing liens on Plaintiffs’ property; levying and seizing Plaintiffs’ property and/or wages; raiding Plaintiffs’ homes and/or offices; forcing Plaintiffs to appear before administrative, civil and/or criminal tribunals; denying Plaintiffs due process; or by other enforcement actions.

1660. Defendants are retaliating against Plaintiffs by attempting to disqualify and discourage them from taking a public position on matters in which they are financially and politically interested, depriving Plaintiffs of their Right to Petition, to Peaceably Assemble and Associate, to Speak freely in the very instance in which those Rights are of the most importance to Plaintiffs.

1661. Defendants’ retaliation against Plaintiffs is without reasonable cause; it is not objective; there is no clear and present danger to the government Defendants that would justify their punishment of Plaintiffs for the direct exercise of popular sovereignty or performing an act of self-governance; the Petition clause was included in the First Amendment to ensure the growth and preservation of orderly, peaceful, and democratic self-governance; it is as much Plaintiffs' duty to question the acts and authority of government as it is the Defendants' duty to administer and obey their limited and delegated authority.

1662. The very nature of our government, republican in form, limited by the First Amendment as it is, provides a guarantee of the Rights of Plaintiffs', as citizens, to Assemble peaceably with other citizens for consultation with respect to public affairs, to Speak openly about the defects and abuses of governance and to effectively Petition the government Defendants for a Redress of Grievances.

1663. The Right to Petition is among the most precious of the liberties guaranteed by the Bill of Rights; the value in the Right of Petition as an essential element in the direct exercise of popular sovereignty and self-government is beyond question.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

1664. All elected officials and federal employees are immune from suit individually for common law torts occurring within the scope of their employment. See 28 U.S.C. §2679(b)(1). Section 2679(b)(1) does not extend to "a civil action against an employee of the Government which is brought for a violation of the Constitution of the United States, or which is brought for a violation of a statute of the United States..." See §2679(b)(2). Therefore, the UNITED STATES, THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT, THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE and THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE have been named as the Defendants in this Complaint.

1665. The President of the United States and his Executive Branch Agencies, and the Legislative Branch of the United States government have failed to address the Plaintiffs' Petitions for Redress of Grievances and subsequently retaliated against the Plaintiffs in violation of the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, and jurisdiction is proper in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §1331.

1666. Plaintiffs have been denied due process in violation of the 5th and 14th Amendments to the United States Constitution, and jurisdiction is proper in accordance with 28 U.S.C. §1331.

1667. Plaintiffs' civil rights have been violated, and jurisdiction is also invoked pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983 and 28 U.S.C. §1343.

1703. The acts alleged by the Plaintiffs were perpetrated by the Executive Branch and Legislative Branch of the United States Government, and regulatory agencies of the United States government and venue is founded on 28 U.S.C. §1391(e).

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

DEFENDANTS HAVE FAILED TO VIEW PLAINTIFFS' PETITIONS FOR REDRESS THROUGH THE PRISM OF THE ORIGINAL MEANING, INTENT, HISTORY AND SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PETITION CLAUSE OF THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

PLAINTIFFS HAVE A RIGHT TO PETITION THE GOVERNMENT FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES, AND IF GOVERNMENT FAILS TO RESPOND, PLAINTIFFS CAN RETAIN THEIR MONEY UNTIL THEIR GRIEVANCES ARE REDRESSED

1668. The Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the issues and facts stated in paragraphs 1 through 1667, as if stated fully herein.

1669. The value in the Right of Petition as an important aspect of self-government is beyond question. It is, after all, the only way for the individual and the small group to secure their unalienable Rights and directly hold the government accountable to the Constitution and Bill of Rights.

1670. Plaintiffs have an unalienable Right to Petition the government for Redress of Grievances, a Right guaranteed by the Constitution. The First Amendment provides, in relevant part, that "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging . . . the right of the people . . . to petition the Government for a redress of grievances." The Supreme Court has recognized this Right to Petition as one of "the most precious of the liberties safeguarded by the Bill of Rights," Mine Workers v. Illinois Bar Assn., 389 U.S. 217, 222 (1967).

1671. As the Supreme Court said in United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542, 552: "The very idea of a government, republican in form, implies a right on the part of its citizens to meet peaceably for consultation in respect to public affairs and to petition for a redress of grievances." The First Amendment of the Federal Constitution expressly guarantees that right against abridgment by Congress. The right is one that cannot be denied without violating those fundamental principles of liberty and justice which lie at the base of all civil and political institutions, -- principles which the Fourteenth Amendment embodies in the general terms of its due process clause. Hebert v. Louisiana, 272 U.S. 312, 316; Powell v. Alabama, 287 U.S. 45, 67.

1672. Defendants' have an obligation to properly respond to Plaintiffs' proper Petitions. The greater the importance of safeguarding the community from incitements to the overthrow of our institutions by force and violence, the more imperative is the need to preserve inviolate the constitutional rights of free Speech, free Press, free Assembly and free Petition in order to maintain an environment conducive and protective of free political discourse, to the end that government may be responsive to the will of the people and that changes, if desired, may be obtained by peaceful means. Therein lies the security of the Republic, the very foundation of constitutional government and the freedom of the People.

1673. The Framers envisioned the rights of Speech, Press, Assembly, and Petitioning as interrelated components of the public's exercise of its sovereign authority. As Representative James Madison observed during the House of Representatives' consideration of the First Amendment:

"The right of freedom of speech is secured; the liberty of the press is expressly declared to be beyond the reach of this Government; the people may therefore publicly address their representatives, may privately advise them, or declare their sentiments by petition to the whole body; in all these ways they may communicate their will." 1 Annals of Cong. 738 (1789) (emphasis added).

1674. "It was not by accident or coincidence that the rights to freedom in speech and press were coupled in a single guaranty with the rights of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition for redress of grievances. All these, though not identical, are inseparable. They are cognate rights, . . . and therefore are united in the First Article's assurance." Thomas v. Collins, 323 U.S. 516, 530 \(1945\).

1675. Although the courts have not previously addressed the precise issue presented here, the courts have recurrently treated the Right to Petition similarly to, and frequently as overlapping with, the First Amendment's other guarantees of free expression. See, e. g., NAACP v. Claiborne Hardware Co., 458 U.S. 886, 909-912, 915 \(1982\); Mine Workers v. Illinois Bar Assn., 389 U.S., at 221-222; Adderley v. Florida, 385 U.S. 39, 40-42 \(1966\); Edwards v. South Carolina, 372 U.S. 229, 234-235 \(1963\); NAACP v. Button, 371 U.S. 415, 429-431 \(1963\).

1676. The Supreme Court has also considered the Right to Petition when interpreting federal law. In the antitrust context, for example, the Supreme Court held that "the Sherman Act does not prohibit . . . persons from associating . . . in an attempt to persuade the legislature or the executive to take particular action with respect to a law . . ." Eastern Railroad Presidents

Conference v. Noerr Motor Freight, Inc., 365 U.S. 127, 136, 5 L. Ed. 2d 464, 81 S. Ct. 523 (1961).

1677 The Supreme Court made explicit that "the right to petition extends to all departments of the Government," and that "the right of access to the courts is . . . but one aspect of the right of petition." California Motor Transport Co. v. Trucking Unlimited, 404 U.S. 508, 510.

1678. While genuine Petitioning is immune from antitrust liability, sham petitioning is not. Plaintiffs' Petitions are neither objectively baseless, nor subjectively motivated by an unlawful purpose, nor are they intended to interfere in any manner with the legitimate and lawful functioning of the government.

1679. As a single example of the type of Constitutionally substantive subject matter that the Defendants have steadfastly failed to provide Redress for in response to Plaintiff's repeated Petitions, and to explicitly illustrate the Constitutional function and practical necessity of the Right to Petition as it was originally intended by our Founders, we present below the subject of the Impermissibly Vague Internal Revenue Code:

The Internal Revenue Code Is Impermissibly Vague
And For Those Reasons It Is Reasonable And Appropriate
For The Plaintiffs To Seek Its Clarification Through Petition

1680. While the Plaintiffs in this action do not request that the Court issue a declaratory judgment asserting that the Internal Revenue Code is vague and cannot be interpreted reasonably and while the Plaintiffs do not, in this action, seek a ruling from the Court as to the constitutionality or enforceability of the Internal Revenue Code, Plaintiffs assert that their numerous First Amendment Petitions to the United States are both reasonable and appropriate, due in large measure to the fact that the language of the Internal Revenue Code is sufficiently unclear, contradictory and vague so that a reasonable person would be constrained to seek clarity through Petitions to the relevant authorities. It has long been established that regulations with criminal sanctions must define the criminal offense with sufficient definiteness that ordinary people can understand what conduct is prohibited and in a manner that does not encourage arbitrary and discriminatory enforcement.

1681. The seminal case concerning pre-enforcement facial challenges on the grounds of vagueness is Village of Hoffman Estates v. Flipside, Hoffman Estates, Inc., 455 U.S. 489, 71 L. Ed. 2d 362, 102 S. Ct. 1186 (1982). The Flipside Court determined that when a court examines such a challenge, “assuming the enactment implicates no constitutionally protected conduct, [the court] should uphold the challenge only if the enactment is impermissibly vague in all of its applications.” Id. at 495 (emphasis added). Although the Supreme Court does not state precisely what it means by “constitutionally protected conduct,” it is clear that it is referring primarily to the First Amendment expressive freedoms, which have long received special protection in vagueness cases. See, e.g. Smith, Sheriff v. Goguen, 415 U.S. 566, 573, 39 L. Ed. 2d 605, 94 S. Ct. 1242 (1974).

1682. It has been established principal that a party must establish “vagueness” as the statute or code is specifically applied to his/her own matter; e.g.; he “cannot complain of the vagueness of the law as applied to the conduct of others. In the instant matter, it is well known, and publicly pronounced across the land that no one individual – including licensed tax and legal professionals -- can understand the Internal Revenue Code. Even the individuals charged with the authoring, administration and enforcement of the Code cannot explain where exactly within the Internal Revenue Code an individual is mandated by law to pay taxes upon wages that he has earned and where companies are mandated by the law to withhold.

1683. A statute must be set out in terms that the ordinary person exercising ordinary common sense can sufficiently understand and comply with, without sacrifice to the public interest. See Arnett v. Kennedy, 416 U.S. 134, 159, 40 L. Ed. 2d 15, 94 S. Ct. 1633 (1974) (quoting United States Civil Serv. Commission v. National Association of Letter Carriers, 413 U.S. 548, 579, 37 L. Ed. 2d 796, 93 S. Ct. 2880 (1973)).

1684. To pass constitutional muster, a statute or code must give persons of ordinary intelligence fair notice that their contemplated conduct is forbidden by statute. See Grayned v. City of Rockford, 408 U.S. 104, 92 S. Ct. 2294, 33 L. Ed. 2d 222 (1972); and Papachristou v. City of Jacksonville, 405 U.S. 156, 92 S. Ct. 839, 31 L. Ed. 2d 110 (1972); and Bouie v. City of Columbia, 378 U.S. 347, 348, 351, 84 S. Ct. 1697, 1699, 1701, 12 L. Ed. 2d 894 (1964); and United States v. National Dairy Products Corp., 372 U.S. 29, 83 S. Ct. 594, 9 L. Ed. 2d 561 (1963);

1685. For many years, the Plaintiffs, who are of ordinary intelligence, have repeatedly petitioned the Executive Branch of the Federal Government, the Legislative Branch of the Federal Government, and the Judicial Branch of the Federal government to tell them -- specifically -- where in the Internal Revenue Code it explicitly imposes the legal obligation on an individual American worker to pay taxes on his/her wages or that American companies that hire such workers must withhold. As of this date, the Executive Branch, the Legislative Branch and the Judicial Branch of the Federal government have failed to show, demonstrate, or otherwise explain where in jurisdictional fact and in law, the Internal Revenue Code requires such acts. As a matter of law, the Internal Revenue Code as it stands today must be determined to be unconstitutional in that it is not understandable by persons of reasonable intelligence.

1686. Because the alleged legal obligations asserted by Defendants via the Internal Revenue Code so profoundly impact the most fundamental Rights, Freedoms and lives of all American citizens and workers, this Court should uphold the First Amendment Right of the Plaintiffs to secure clarifications of this nation's tax laws via the Right to Petition for Redress of Grievances; and furthermore, lacking such Redress, should uphold Plaintiffs' Right to enforce the Right to Petition by the withholding of monies they might otherwise relinquish to the Government.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

DEFENDANTS HAVE TAKEN RETALIATORY ACTIONS AGAINST THE PLAINTIFFS FOR PETITIONING FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES AND EXPRESSING THOSE GRIEVANCES PUBLICLY. SUCH RETALIATORY ACTION IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL

1687. The Plaintiffs incorporate by reference the issues and facts stated in paragraphs 1 through 1686, as if stated fully herein.

1688. A retaliatory action is one brought with a motive to interfere with the exercise of protected Rights.

1689. A danger to public interest is required before the government can restrict Rights.

1690. The Right to Petition the government requires stringent protection. "The very idea of a government, republican in form, implies a right on the part of its citizens to meet peaceably for consultation in respect to public affairs and to petition for a redress of grievances." United States v. Cruikshank, 92 U.S. 542, 552 \(1876\).

1691. Except in the most extreme circumstances citizens cannot be punished for exercising this right "without violating those fundamental principles of liberty and justice which lie at the base of all civil and political institutions," De Jonge v. Oregon, 299 U.S. 353, 364 \(1937\).

1692. The greater the importance of safeguarding the community from incitements to the overthrow of our institutions by force and violence, the more imperative is the need to preserve inviolate the constitutional rights of free Speech, free Press, free Assembly and free Petition in order to maintain the opportunity for free political discussion, to the end that government may be responsive to the will of the people and that changes, if desired, may be obtained by peaceful means. Therein lies the security of the Republic, the very foundation of constitutional government and the freedom of the People.

1693. Although the term “petition” is not defined by the Constitution, the United States Supreme Court long ago interpreted the “Petition Clause” to apply in a variety of circumstances, noting the Right to Petition the representatives of the people in Congress; to Petition the Executive Branch, and the right of access to the courts. The Supreme Court has also determined that it is appropriate to give an alleged intrusion on First Amendment rights particular scrutiny where the government may be attempting to chill the exercise of First Amendment rights because the exercise of those rights would adversely affect the government's own selfish and conflicting interests.

1694. More importantly, under our form of governance, the government cannot retaliate for the exercise of the Constitutional Right to Petition for Redress of Grievances, or to access the courts. Such retaliation is cognizable under Title 42, U.S.C. § 1983.

The right of access that underlies a charge of retaliation is lodged not only in the Petition Clause of the First Amendment, but also in the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments, and the Privileges and Immunities Clauses of Article IV and the 14th Amendment.

1695. More than twenty years ago, the Senate Finance Committee explained:

“The committee is concerned with the rapid growth in deliberate defiance of the tax laws by tax protestors. The Internal Revenue Service had 13,600 illegal protest returns under examination as of June 30, 1981. . . . The committee believes that an immediately assessable penalty on the filing of protest returns will help deter the filing of such returns, and will demonstrate the determination of the Congress to maintain the integrity of the income tax system.” S. Rep. No. 494, 97th Cong., 2d Sess. 277, reprinted in 1982 U.S. Code Cong. & Admin. News 781, 1023-24.

1696. For many years, it has been the policy of the Internal Revenue Service as well as the Justice Department to vociferously pursue, harass, charge, indict and prosecute -- both civilly and criminally -- those individuals who openly dare to question the Internal Revenue Code or the enforcement thereof. The aforementioned Senate Finance Committee’s Memoranda demonstrates the Congress’ tacit approval of such illicit activity.

1697. In the instant matter, Defendants have specifically targeted many individuals who are members of the Plaintiff We the People Congress and We The People Foundation For Constitutional Education organizations directly because of their expressed beliefs; their free exercise of their unalienable Right to Petition the Executive Branch, the Legislative Branch and the Federal Judiciary of our government for a Redress of Grievances and their unalienable Right to Peaceably Assemble, Associate, Speak and Publish about the abuses of government power and its detriments to their Freedom.

1698. Included with this complaint are affidavits from each of the Plaintiffs, attesting to the fact that they have Petitioned the Defendants for Redress of Grievances and the Defendants have not properly responded. Most of the Plaintiffs go on to say that the Defendants are retaliating against them. They are prepared to further support their charge of impermissible retaliation with evidentiary material.

1699. Through the instrumentalities of the Defendants, the Plaintiffs have suffered, and endure to this day, substantive damages, deprivations and abuse. Untold numbers of other Americans who are not Plaintiffs have likewise suffered. These abuses and pains include, but are not limited to:

- Harassment by government agents;
- Receipt of official correspondence threatening fines, seizures, prosecution and incarceration;
- The administrative seizure – without Court Order or Due Process – of their wages, salaries and property;
- Searches of their homes and businesses by armed squads of government agents;
- Seizures of property and personal papers with the sole intent of punishing Plaintiffs and disrupting their businesses and ability to create “income”;
- Systemic denial of Due Process and Judicial Impartiality in virtually all administrative, civil and criminal proceedings and tribunals;
- The forced retraction and suppression of First Amendment protected Speech on Plaintiffs’ websites, books, and in public Assemblies;
- The improper influencing of the media by Defendants encouraging the denial of their forums to Plaintiffs – including the inability to purchase advertising space;
- The criminal indictment, prosecution and incarceration of Americans for alleged violations of U.S. tax law for failing to file or pay taxes on “income”, even though the government never avers any specific bona fide statutory authority explicitly imposing such obligations in law, nor does it produce bona fide proof of its legal jurisdiction to enforce such alleged obligations upon Americans;
- Plaintiffs face daily the “Hobson’s choice” between either ignoring these substantive transgressions by their government and existing without their due Freedoms -- or facing the very real fear of subjecting themselves and their families, to the probable loss of their most fundamental Rights for daring to question their servant government regarding its authority and for daring to exercise their unalienable Rights as championed in our Founding documents.

1700. Individuals who exercise their Right of free Speech, and which Speech the government alleges advocates lawbreaking, and which Speech the government chooses to refuse to answer or address, and which Speech incites no present harm, is protected. The retaliation by government agencies for exercising such Speech, particularly in the form of Petition, is clearly unconstitutional and morally reprehensible. The conduct of the Defendants, however beneficent in intent, is reminiscent of the actions taken by undemocratic regimes and rogue nations whose actions have been openly criticized and vilified by the United States as behaviors unbecoming a civilized People. As a matter of law, and Constitutional Right, the retaliatory actions against the Plaintiffs, in whole or individually, by the Defendants must be stopped.

1701. The Plaintiffs have properly exercised their fundamental Right to Petition the government for Redress of Grievances regarding violations of the explicitly limited authorities delegated our government by the People through the Founding Documents. Instead of enjoying the first of the “Great Rights” – i.e., government based upon the consent of the People - Plaintiffs have been directly and substantively retaliated against for acts of Petitioning their Government. The Defendant’s primary choice of retaliatory weapons has been the enforcement of alleged, and contrived, violations of the Internal Revenue Code against Plaintiffs.

1702. Plaintiffs desire nothing more for themselves and the Republic than to exercise the final clause of the First Amendment and peacefully secure the Redress rightfully due them. As such, this Court should uphold and protect the Plaintiffs’ First Amendment Right to Petition and the corollary right exercised by some of the Plaintiffs to peacefully enforce that Right by the withholding of monies they might otherwise relinquish to the Government.

1703. Furthermore, because the Right of Petition is by its nature a direct exercise of the sovereignty of the People, and is of Constitutional necessity superior to the Government's narrowly limited authority to tax, the Court should Order and enjoin the Defendants from any further or continuing acts of retaliation, in any form.

Federal Agencies and Officials are Operating Under Color of State Law

1704. Defendant federal officials and agencies are operating under color of State law. For example, on September 16, 2003, at a formal press conference held at the Treasury Building in Washington DC, Defendants announced a joint federal-state enforcement program aimed, in part, against Plaintiffs' and their Petitions for Redress. State enforcement officials from numerous States were present during the press conference. During the press conference, Defendant IRS's senior spokesman, Terry Lemons, said on the record to New York Times reporter David Cay Johnston that, "the recent spate of enforcement actions taken by the I.R.S. ... show other ways that government is answering the petition." Exhibit UUU, attached to Plaintiff Schulz's affidavit of September 16, 2004 is a copy of the NY Times article.

1705. In addition, all State "income" tax laws and enforcement programs "piggyback" on the federal "income" tax laws and enforcement programs.

1706. Affidavits submitted by some of the plaintiffs demonstrate that the defendant government officials have been operating in this matter under color of state law.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiffs, respectfully request the Court enter an Order:

- a. Granting declaratory relief to the Plaintiffs by constraining the defendants to meet their obligations under the law and Constitution and relevant rules by entering into good faith exchanges with the Plaintiffs and to provide to the Plaintiffs documented and specific answers to the reasonable questions asked of them by the Plaintiffs and to address each of the issues in their official respective capacities as raised by the Plaintiffs in their various Petitions to representatives of the United States Government; and
- b. Granting a temporary injunction against the United States Internal Revenue Service and the Department of Justice and any other agency of the United States that arguably may act in this matter under color of law, from taking any further retaliatory actions against the named Plaintiffs in this proceeding and against all others similarly situated, whether such retaliation is for attempting to Petition the United States Government, for Peaceably Assembling and associating with other individuals under the umbrella and auspices of the We The People Foundation For Constitutional Education or the We The People Congress, for serving as Plaintiffs in this action or for the exercise of any other rights protected by the Constitution of the United States; and
- c. Retaining jurisdiction of this action to ensure compliance with the Court's decisions; and
- d. Expediting these proceedings where this matter might be set for trial; and
- e. Granting any other, non-financial relief to the Plaintiffs that the Court may deem proper.
