DARTBOARDS AND DARTGAMES FROM ENGLAND

Withholding of Appraisement Notice

JANUARY 17, 1967.

Pursuant to section 201(b) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(b)), notice is hereby given that there are reasonable grounds to believe or suspect, from information presented to me, that the purchase price and the exporter's sales price of dartboards and dartgames from England are less, or likely to be less, than the foreign market value as defined, respectively, in sections 203, 204, and 205 of that Act, as amended (19 U.S.C. 162, 163, and 164).

In accordance with the provisions of § 14.9(a) of the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 14.9(a)), customs officers are being directed to withhold appraisement of dartboards and dartgames from England. All unappraised importations, to which purchase price is applicable, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, after the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER are subject to this order. All unappraised importations, to which exporter's sales price is applicable, entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, on or after March 3, 1966, are subject to this order.

The information alleging that the merchandise under consideration was being sold at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act was received in proper form on June 30, 1966. This information was the subject of an "Antidumping Proceeding Notice" which was published on page 11277 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of August 25, 1966, pursuant to § 14.6(d), Customs Regulations (19 CFR 14.6(d)).

This notice is published pursuant to § 14.6(e) of the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 14.6(e)).

[SEAL] LESTER D. JOHNSON,
Commissioner of Customs.

Internal Revenue Service ORGANIZATION AND FUNCTIONS

This material supersedes the statement on organization and functions published at 30 F.R. 9368-9402.

Dated: January 12, 1967.

[SEAL] SHELDON S. COHEN,
Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

1112 Service organization. (1) The Internal Revenue Service is a component part of the Treasury Department. The Service is headed by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue who serves under the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury.

(2) The Internal Revenue Service consists of a National Office in Washington, D.C., and a field organization. The latter consists of 7 Internal Revenue regions, each headed by a Regional Commissioner who reports to the Deputy Commissioner, 58 Internal Revenue districts, each headed by a District Director, 7 service centers, each headed by a Director who reports to a Regional Commissioner, and a computer center and a data center under the direction of the Assistant Commissioner (Data Processing) in the National Office. In addition, there are in the field 7 Regional Inspectors and 7 Regional Counsels, who report to the Assistant Commissioner (Inspection) and the Chief Counsel, respectively, in Washington, D.C.

(3) In administering the alcohol and tobacco tax and appellate functions direct from the regional office, the Regional Commissioner maintains and supervises several branch offices. The Alcohol and Tobacco Tax branch offices are headed by Supervisors in Charge who report to the Assistant Regional Commissioner (Alcohol and Tobacco Tax). The Appellate branch offices are headed by Chiefs or Assistant Chiefs, Appellate Branch Office, who report to the Assistant Regional Commissioner (Appellate) who also carries the title of Chief, Appellate Division. The Regional Counsels also maintain and supervise branch offices.

(4) In each Internal Revenue district there are offices in communities where concentration of work load in audit, collection, or intelligence activities requires the assignment of personnel.

(5) Field office addresses are shown in the Appendixes.

1113 National Office—1113.1 Mission. The mission of the National Office is to develop broad nationwide policies and programs for the administration of the internal revenue laws and related statutes, and to direct, guide, coordinate, and control the endeavors of the Internal Revenue Service.

1113.2 Basic organization. The principal offices which form the National Office are: The Office of the Commissioner; the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (Administration); the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (Compliance); the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (Data Processing); the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (Inspection); the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (Planning and Research); the Office of the Assistant Commissioner (Technical); and the Office of the Chief Counsel.

1113.3 Office of the Commissioner. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue, in conformity with policies and delegations of authority made by the Secretary of the Treasury, establishes the policies and administers the activities of the Internal Revenue Service. The Office of the Commissioner includes the Deputy Commissioner, the Assistant to the Commissioner, and the Foreign Tax Assistance Staff.

1113.31 Deputy Commissioner. The Deputy Commissioner assists and acts for the Commissioner in planning, directing, coordinating and controlling the policies and programs and in giving executive leadership to the activities of the Internal Revenue Service. The Deputy Commissioner also supervises the Regional Commissioners of Internal Revenue, and makes allocations of funds and personnel to them.

1113.32 Assistant to the Commissioner. The Assistant to the Commissioner reviews and takes final action for the Commissioner on documents involving technical matters prepared for the Commissioner's signature, including regulations, closing agreements, reports on proposed legislation, rulings, correspondence, authorizations to the Attorney General for initiating suits, compromises and reports to the Joint Committee on Internal Revenue Taxation involving refunds or credits of any income, war profits, excess profits, estate, or gift taxes in excess of $100,000. The Assistant to the Commissioner makes independent studies for the Commissioner.

1113.33 Foreign Tax Assistance Staff. The Foreign Tax Assistance Staff provides leadership within the Service for the development and implementation of comprehensive programs of assistance in tax administration to developing nations, and on occasion, to the more developed nations, in line with the foreign policy of the United States and its commitments to the Organization of American States, the United Nations, and other international institutions. It is the central point of contact within the Service with foreign governments, the State Department and international organizations on all matters involving the exchange of technical assistance in tax administration. The Staff designs broad programs aimed at modernizing and strengthening tax administration in developing countries; it determines program requirements in terms of number and qualifications of advisors and selects, trains, and assigns such advisors. It provides technical leadership and direction, continually monitors, and periodically evaluates country programs to ensure maximum effectiveness of assistance efforts. The Staff develops and arranges study and observation programs in tax administration for foreign tax officials, which are conducted largely in the United States and occasionally at overseas sites. The Staff maintains close liaison with the De-
