App. 3 (the I.G. Act), and the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998, Pub. L. 105-206, it is hereby ordered as follows.

1. Office of the Treasury Inspector for Tax Administration

a. There is within the Department of the Treasury an Office of the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (OTIGTA). The OTIGTA shall be headed by an Inspector General who is appointed by the President and who shall report to and be under the general supervision of the Secretary of the Treasury and the Deputy Secretary.

b. The Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) shall exercise all duties and responsibilities of an Inspector General with respect to the Department and the Secretary on all matters relating to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The TIGTA shall have sole authority under the I.G. Act to conduct an audit or investigation of the IRS Oversight Board, and the Office of Chief Counsel of the IRS (Office of Chief Counsel). (Hereafter the IRS Oversight Board and the Office of Chief Counsel are referred to as the "Related Entities".) All the powers and responsibilities of the IRS Office of Chief Inspector, except for the conducting of background checks and the providing of physical security, are transferred to the TIGTA.

c. The OTIGTA shall be placed organizationally within the Departmental Offices but shall be independent of the Departmental Offices and all other offices and bureaus within the Department.

d. It shall be the duty and responsibility of the TIGTA to:

(1) Provide policy direction for, and conduct, supervise, and coordinate audits and investigations relating to the programs and operations of the IRS and Related Entities;

(2) Review existing and proposed legislation and regulations relating to the programs and operations of the IRS and Related Entities, and make recommendations in the semiannual reports required by § 5(a) of the I.G. programs and operations administered or financed by the IRS and Related Entities; or the identification and prosecution of participants in such fraud or abuse;

(5) Recommend actions to resolve fraud and other serious problems, abuses and deficiencies in the programs and operations of the IRS and Related Entities; and inform the Secretary and the Congress, fully and currently, of these problems and the progress made resolving these problems; and,

(6) Protect the IRS and Related Entities against external attempts to corrupt or threaten their employees except that the TIGTA shall not, with respect to employees of the IRS and Related Entities, conduct background checks or provide physical security.

e. The duties and responsibilities described in paragraph 1.d. shall not be construed to impair or reduce the responsibilities of program managers in the IRS and Related Entities to ensure that programs are administered in an economic and efficient manner and that such programs are protected against waste, fraud and abuse. Similarly, paragraph 1.d. shall not be construed to prevent program managers in the IRS and Related Entities from coordinating with other agencies in fulfilling the managers' responsibilities for proper administration of programs.

f. An audit or investigation conducted by the TIGTA shall not affect the final decision of the Secretary or his delegate under 26 U.S.C. § 6406.

g. The TIGTA shall not assume responsibility for any program operating responsibility of the IRS or Related Entities.

(5) Require by subpoena the production of all information, documents, reports, answers, records, accounts, papers, and other data and documentary evidence necessary in the performance of functions assigned by the I.G. Act, which subpoena, in the case of contumacy or refusal to obey, shall be enforceable by order of any appropriate U.S. district court: provided, that procedures other than subpoenas shall be used by the TIGTA to obtain documents and information from Federal agencies;

(6) Administer to or take from any person an oath, affirmation, or affidavit whenever necessary for the performance of TIGTA functions, which oath, affirmation, or affidavit when administered or taken by or before a OTIGTA employee designated by the TIGTA shall have the same force and effect as if administered or taken by or before an officer having a seal;
