YAMIL AMADO HARON KOURI Y PEREZ

Order Temporarily Denying Export Privileges

In the matter of Yamil Amado Haron Kouri y Perez, also known as Yamil Kouri, Centro Nacional Cubano De Investigaciones Cientificas, Havana, Cuba, respondent; File No. 24-62.

The Director, Investigations Division, Office of Export Control, Bureau of International Commerce, United States Department of Commerce, pursuant to the provisions of § 382.11 of the Export Regulations (Title 15, Chapter III, Subchapter B, Code of Federal Regulations), has applied to the Compliance Commission for an order temporarily denying all export privileges to the above named respondent. It was requested that the order remain in effect for a period of sixty days pending continued investigation into the facts and transactions giving rise to the application and the commencement of such proceedings as may be deemed proper under the law against said respondent.

The Compliance Commissioner has reviewed the application and the evidence presented in support thereof and has submitted his report together with his recommendation that the application be granted and that a temporary denial order be issued for sixty days.

The evidence and recommendation of the Compliance Commissioner have been considered. The above named respondent is a resident of Havana, Cuba, and is Director of the Centro Nacional Cubano De Investigaciones Cientificas (Cuban National Center of Scientific Research). On the evidence presented there is substantial basis to believe that the respondent has participated in transactions, in countries other than the United States, for the purchase and procurement of U.S.-origin medical and scientific research equipment and supplies, for reexportation to Cuba, and that said respondent has knowingly caused, counseled, induced, and procured the doing of acts which are prohibited by the Export Control Act and regulations
