TREASURY NOTES

MARCH 23, 1978.

Department of the Treasury Circular, Public Debt Series—No. 7-78, dated March 16, 1978, as supplemented, descriptive of the 7½ percent Treasury Notes of Series M-1980, is hereby amended, effective March 31, 1978, to issue the notes as an additional issue of the 7½ percent Treasury Notes of Series C-1980, as described in Department of the Treasury Circular, Public Debt Series—No. 7-76, dated February 27, 1976, as supplemented. The provision in Department of the Treasury Circular, Public Debt Series—No. 7-78, for a $5,000 minimum denomination on the Series M-1980 notes will have no effect following the merger of the two issues. Both series of 7½ percent notes will have a $1,000 minimum denomination and will mature on March 31, 1980.

The additional issue of the 7½ percent Treasury Notes of Series C-1980 will accrue interest from March 31, 1978, and payment for the notes will be calculated on the basis of the auction price determined in accordance with Department of the Treasury Circular, Public Debt Series—No. 7-78. Otherwise, the notes are as described in the following excerpt from Department of the Treasury Circular, Public Debt Series—No. 7-76:

1. The notes will be dated March 17, 1976, and will bear interest from that date, payable on a semiannual basis on September 30, 1976, and thereafter on March 31 and September 30. They will mature March 31, 1980, and will not be subject to call for redemption prior to maturity.

2. The income derived from the notes is subject to all taxes imposed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. The notes are subject to estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State, but are exempt from all taxation now or hereafter imposed on the principal or interest thereof by any State, or any of the possessions of the United States, or by any local taxing authority.

3. The notes will be acceptable to secure deposits of public moneys. They will not be acceptable in payment of taxes.

4. Bearer notes with interest coupons attached, and notes registered as to principal and interest, will be issued in denominations of $1,000, $5,000, $10,000, $100,000 and $1,000,000. Book-entry notes will be available to eligible bidders in multiples of those amounts. Interchanges of notes of different denominations and of coupon and registered notes, and the transfer of registered notes will be permitted.

5. The notes will be subject to the general regulations of the Department of the Treasury.

On March 5, 1976, the Secretary of the Treasury announced that the interest rate on the notes would be 7½ percent per annum.
